Adelaide Mountain Bike Club Newsletter
Fox Creek May Issue 2015

THE MUD ISSUE

Hi everyone, I'm Chelsea, and welcome back to the second instalment of my now monthly tradition. – the fat chat (Version 2) series!

First and foremost, a somewhat sincere apology for the general lateness of this newsletter's release – but it was clearly all part of my grand plan to rev up this weekend's race! Which is at Prospect Hill... 31st of May... this Sunday... Prospect Hill... Register... before Sunday... Prospect Hill.

Now that you have no excuse, allow me to take you back through the latest test for the tyres with a month's worth of mud and dirt and all things unclean!

Starting with this writer's favourite of races, we had the kick off to the Hammer Nutrition Winter Enduro Series! which brought the sport four hours of non-stop slop, fun and pine forest adventure!

Hey, wanna hear a dirty joke?
...Someone fell in the mud.

(Eh hem) Much like the rain, I managed to follow the week right into Adelaide's own Junior Development Camp by MTBA! An awesome weekend which saw 11 of our local, (and finest) under 17 and under 15yo legends in the making, show off their knowledge and skills under the instruction of some of mountain biking Australia's most iconic figures! (I know, I shouldn't brag).

And to finish this edition on a muddy high, I've snuck in some pics from PACC's first round of the CX Crossfire Cup Series, and Bike SA's 24hr "Dirty Weekend!" – an annual personal favourite of one of the muddiest of muddy weekends... which, ironically saw no mud.

Fox Creek Forecast:
a barmy 7°C morning with a chance of rain, a drop of sun and just a touch of MUD!

I did NOT fall down I attacked the floor!

From a vast agricultural history (according to my extensive research) reaching as far back as 1838, to a fairly recent, more destructive history of being a site for commercial timber, Fox Creek is fast becoming one of the most beautiful, accessible, and sustainable, protected trail networks in the local South Australian Hills. So, deciding to host our first Winter Enduro Race here is like having a birthday party in an ice-cream store – just an all-round good idea, really. And while we're on the topic of firsts - of the whopping 133 competitors entered, wasn't it just awesome to see a few first timers out there! (Not that you repeating offenders aren't always good to see, also).

But what a result from our fresh faces – with Tara Ross taking out second place in Elite Females, and Daniela Coutinho scoring a sneaky first place in the Female Duo's, (with yours truly)! ... Granted, we were the only female duo, but hey – just goes to show how much fun you can have on your first MTB race ever! ... and how few female competitors there are – up your race game ladies!

Track memories:

Aside from being tacky, and slippery as all fun!, the starting track built up your confidence with the flowing down trails of the XC Forest Network, then somehow found you testing your suspension against the freshly polished rocks of the Rocky Outcrops, before throwing you into the most glorious, perilous, victorious, of track sections through (insert lost trail memory), a quick trip into Around the Knoll, then onto a crowd-rich finish at the top of the Easy Rider western trail loop, where conveniently, you would find your friendly local vollies working hard at the BBQ, and a small collection of exploded rear hubs, broken chains, the (ever-favourite) flat tyre, broken thumb and some generous leg cramps.

A huge thank you to everyone that came out and raced on the day! Especially to Michael Denton, who (wobbled) away with first place, overall! Well done to all the nubes! And of course a massive thanks to all our volunteers – especially those that volunteered AND raced! (“cough” Braithewaite “cough”).

2015 AMBC Hammer Nutrition 4hr Enduro Series! Round 1 RESULTS!

Thanks YOU'S: Registration: yours truly, and Anna Puckridge. Race Brief: P'An-Tau Jiricek-Scott (Committee)

Course/track setup: David Knight (Committee), Griff Knight, Nick Noske, Craig Hutchins, John Allison and Robbie Allison.

Course Packup: Paul Massey, Annie Knight, and James Irving. BBQ: Betina Denton, Amelia Denton, and Paul Clark.

I can help with everything!: David Braithwaite (legendary!)

And a special thanks to: Human Projectiles, Forestry SA, Anderson Hill Winery, Adelaide Hills Council and the local guys; Craig Hutchins and Nick Noske, for their commitment to the trails.

Coming up...

31, 21 : Easy to say, Easy to do!

~~1ST RACE: 19 April @ Fox Creek!~~

2nd RACE: 31 May @ Prospect Hill!

3rd RACE: 21 June @ Craighburn!

All races are still open for entry – for the whole season!

That balance point...

ADL JUNIOR DEVELOPMENT CAMP
Shiloh Hills Christian Retreat, Prospect Hill and Fox Creek MTB Park, proved three great locations for practicing some timeless tricks and riding techniques, and providing one awesome weekend for our local junior athletes, and Trainee Level 1 MTB Coaches!
But just a quick shout out to Bio-Mechanics Cycles and Repairs (BMCR) for their generous cash donation to our club! Their sponsorship went on to directly support all our Junior Club Members! Legends!

CLEARED IT!

The Teacher and the Student

Cornering and... body positioning?

The Junior Development Weekend, brought to you by our fearless leader, Evan James as Head Coach, and our modest crew of Level 1 Trainee Coaches: our very own David Knight, and Luke Hallam, Andy ‘Goggles’, Chris Jongewaard (I hear he’s alright at riding bikes?), Darren O’Grady, Tyson Schmidt, and myself – together, presented our juniors with the perfect opportunity to learn what mountain biking is all about. With skill levels that ranged from ‘just starting out’ to ‘hey you, check out my mad skills’, our juniors certainly took every opportunity to show off some serious participation, skill development, and just plain old good team work... and yes, mad skills. Some of them even took it to the next level! The DIRTY level! The 24r DIRTY LEVEL! Or more specifically, the 12hr DIRTY LEVEL. And although they put in a solid competitive effort, this writer will regrettably note - not one of them, wore a costume.

Below are just a few pics that I’ve stolen (with permission), and cropped from the epic weekend, by:

Kane Naraat (www.kanephoto.com.au/2015-Dirty-Weekend-Fox-Creek/), and Sam Bruce (<https://goo.gl/m96qs4>).

For some serious talent shots, check out their webpages! And if you’re interested in purchasing a fun-size print version, check out their webpages! In the meantime, throw your hands up for the 2015 Bike SA Dirty Weekend!... (yes, my first round of pictures was somewhat based on what punch line I could use...)

PACC CX CROSSFIRE CUP ROUND ONE!

Held at Park 15: Olives and Kitty Litter. With a solid 2.4km loop of pure race power and endurance, a wicked weave of switch-back trails and off-camber corners, and nothing but autumn views, and positive reviews from every competitor - I sure was heartbroken that I fell sick that day. Thank you PACC!

SO MUCH AWESOME!

B-D FARM PARIS CREEK

Over the years, B-D Farm has taken out the food industry podiums for their dedication to producing high quality products! And with that strong running history to hold them high, we are proud to see them back in the running for this year's SA Food Industry Awards!

To appreciate the delicious extent of their products, check out their webpage:

<http://www.bdfarmpariscreek.com.au/>

And to make sure we keep seeing B-D Farm Paris Creek dairy bag prizes at our events, vote them in!, at:

HAMMER NUTRITION

Our headliner for the series! Did you know, that apart from being an awesome sauce of sport nutrition (see what I did there), HN are also awesome sponsors! In addition to AMBC, these guys support events right down from massive desert marathons, to 200km alpine road-ride experiences, to a wide range of MTB madness! To find out more about team Nutrition, check out their page:

<http://www.hammernutrition.com.au/>

MAXXIS TYRES

Straight from the box of original designs, with an enduring dedication to research and development and high class performance, you'll be sure to see, use, smell, touch, and test a set of these high-quality, ground-grabbing pieces of awesomeness! If you've never thought to look up their history, I encourage you to take a peek:

BMCR

Did you know that BMCR have supported us for over a decade now!? On top of that, these guys are huge advocates for the cycling world with major support in events such as the Tour, Three Peaks, Coast to Coast and of course our AMBC events. And you know what - they seem to just love what they do.

Check them out:

OVER THE EDGE

There is LOTS happening at OTE this year! Like the Freaky 13th Melrose FAT TYRE FESTIVAL over the June long weekend. AKA: a massive weekend dedicated to fun! Riders from all over the country can come and ride those sweet Melrose trails, improve their skills, meet new people, drink amazing port, check out some art, make your own art!, and just enjoy the myriad of colours, sounds and activities this weekend will host!

For details, and further inspiration, visit:

<http://melrosemountainbike.com/2015-freaky-fat-tyre-programme/>

And while you're at it, don't forget to check out this year's 18 Hours of Melrose Race!

GIANT

With generous donations, ongoing support within the GIANT WORLD OF CYCLING and a local bike shop in the heart of the city, Giant is definitely up there in our thank you list. To keep yourselves updated with some local awesomeness, check out their Facebook page, at:

<https://www.facebook.com/GCWADELAIDE/timeline>

PALMERS

And what is mountain biking but a display of beauty? Of course we have our gorgeous riders, but we also have our scenery, our ability, and our endeavours to achieve something great. Not too unlike one of our awesome sponsors:

WHIPPET'S WORKSHOP

Located just outside of North Adelaide, complete with coffee and access to a whole range of bike kit out, WW not only have their place in our community, but have also been awesome supporters for our race series over the years. Hey - they even race with us!

To follow these guys, and see what they get up to, check out their page:
